

VINAY PUSHPAKARAN

Coming with over 15 years of experience in Sales and Marketing, Coaching and Product Development with exposure in FMCG and Export Marketing industries, Vinay Pushpakaran is an entrepreneur, professional speaker, business consultant and life coach.

Having started his career as a sales and marketing professional, Vinay progressed in management to find his passion in facilitating learning and development. As a sales and marketing professional and working with teams from across the world, he was fascinated by the people factor in organizational development, and since then he has invested in his passion to become a sought after coach in the crucial areas of communication skills and team building. Vinay is the co-founder and Chief Facilitator of Future Impact Learning, a behavioral training company that provides life skills and personal effectiveness coaching for students and corporates.

As a coach, Vinay is experienced in the curation and delivery of a wide range of life skills ranging from team building, business communication, selling skills and personality enhancement.

As a coach, Vinay is experienced in the curation and delivery of a wide range of life skills ranging from team building, business communication, selling skills and personality enhancement. From interactive lectures to highly activity-based and experiential learning approaches, he has addressed a wide variety of audiences over the last few years.

His specialist training areas include Collaboration, Public Speaking, Communication Skills, Leadership, Campus to Corporate programs, and Personal effectiveness. Apart from this, he is also passionate about travelling, reading and reviewing movies, books and sports.