

SUJITH KUMAR. J

Founder & Managing Trustee
Maatram Foundation

Has over 22 years experience in the field of Human Resources with extensive experience in Design and Implementation of Employee Engagement Initiatives, BPHR, Change Management, Performance Management, Employee Relations & Labor Law, Internal Communications, Branding, CSR and Training & Development. He holds a Post graduate degree in Social Work with a specialization in Personnel Management & Industrial Relations from Loyola College, Chennai.

Sujith has been with Infosys Ltd for the last 20 years and has performed several roles in this period. He is currently the AVP & HR Business Leader for Infosys where he heads the HR function for its Cloud & Infrastructure Services and also heads the Internal Communications at Infosys Sujith has extensive experience in setting up HR function in a Development Center and has conceptualized and executed several Employee Engagement Initiatives. He has rich experience in managing the Business HR function and People Strategy. Sujith is also a recipient of the Infosys Award for Excellence and has won several awards for his innovation in people management and employee engagement.

Sujith has been with Infosys Ltd for the last 20 years and has performed several roles in this period.

He is a prominent speaker in student & industry forums and has featured in several TV and Radio Talk shows. He has delivered over 2700 guest lectures and spends his weekends mostly visiting colleges and speaking to young minds. Very passionate about writing, Sujith has penned his thoughts for several magazines and newspapers. He also published his first book written in Tamil. His career counselling sessions are very popular amongst students and parents across the country.

He is the Founder & Managing Trustee of Maatram Foundation which provides free higher education to meritorious students from the economically weaker section of the society. Through his foundation more than 1600 Students have been benefited in the last 8 years. Maatram Foundation has also embarked on an ambitious journey of setting up school libraries in select Govt Corporation Schools across TN.

Sujith has won several awards - Winner of the Young Achiever Award & ICON of Rotaract awarded by Rotary International. Recipient of The Change Maker Award in 2014, Humanitarian Award from NIT, Trichy & Distinguished Alumni of Loyola in 2015. He also won the Pride of Tamilnadu award in 2017 for his work with Maatram Foundation. Sujith is currently part of several Academic councils of Colleges and a steering committee member of the NAASCOM HR Forum.

He is the Founder & Managing Trustee of Maatram Foundation which provides free higher education to meritorious students from the economically weaker section of the society.